10. STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

Hillside, a two-storey rendered brick and stone building in the Victorian Filigree style, with panoramic views of the town and harbour, has cultural heritage significance for the following reasons:

  - the place exhibits fine aesthetic qualities in the classical ornamentation and cast ironwork detailing in the front facade and is a fine example of the Victorian Filigree style;
  - the place is indicative of the success of the pastoral industry in the Albany district;
  - the place has a close association with the Hassell family;

the place has a close association with Adelaide Architect Thomas English; set in extensive landscaped grounds, the place is a prominent landmark in the Albany township and contributes to the community's sense of place; and, the place is valued by the community for its past role as a wedding reception and function centre.
