10. STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE
Collie Post Office (fmr) has cultural heritage significance for the following reasons:
  - it demonstrates the architectural style of the Government's Principal Architect, H. Beasley, and his successor, W.B. Hardwick;
  - it makes an important contribution to the character of the Throssell streetscape;
  - the 1908 and 1925 phases of construction are associated with periods of growth in the town's history, in particular the development of the Collie coal fields and the town, and the introduction of the telephone exchange; and,
  - it has considerable social significance as a focal point for the local community.
