10. STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE
26-28 Norfolk Street, comprising a two-storey stone house with corrugated iron roof, sub-divided into two strata titles, each having a separate garage and outbuildings which once housed earth closets and laundry, has cultural heritage significance for the following reasons:
 - its contribution to the corner streetscape and precinct values of Norfolk Street, Parry Street and that section of South Terrace;
 - its association with the evolution of the Fremantle community in the operation of a corner shop and living quarters in the 1860s; and
 - the early use of a fitch beam in the extension to the shop in the 1880s.

The garage at the north corner of No 28 Norfolk Street is not included in the assessment.
