10. STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE
Canning War Memorial , a white painted, freestanding masonry memorial arch and matching stone panel in a formal garden setting, has cultural heritage significance for the following reasons:

it is a symbol of national mourning for those who lost their lives in World Wars One and Two;

the memorial is a means of identifying the men and women from the Canning district in alphabetical order; and, the place is located on a predominant point between two major roads opposite the Canning Town Hall (this present site was used for the erection of a memorial in 1956 to replace the original siting outside the Canning Town Hall from 1921. This was due to road realignment).
