10. STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

Nedlands Post Office (fmr), a single-storey Inter-War Mediterranean style rendered brick building with Art-Deco detailing and a hipped tiled roof, has cultural heritage significance for the following reasons:

the place is a good, restrained example of an Inter-War Mediterranean style building, and is rare as a post office designed in this style in Western Australia; and, the place is rare as one of the few purpose-built post offices constructed in the metropolitan area during the Inter-War period.
