10. STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

Broome Pioneer Cemetery has cultural heritage significance for the following reasons:

it is the resting place of a number of well known people associated with the early European history and development of Broome and the North-West;

the place contributes to the Broome community's sense of place; as a reminder of the early European settlement of the area; the place is located on a promontory landmark that contributes to the surrounding vista; and, the place, in conjunction with other cemeteries in Broome, demonstrates the range of people with differing ethnic backgrounds who have contributed to the establishment and development of Broome.
