10. STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

Suspension footbridge , a simple suspension bridge of timber and steel, has cultural heritage significance for the following reasons:

the present bridge replaces that built 1904-1905, continuing the patterns of community usage;

the place is one of only a few suspension footbridges in Western Australia; the place has an unique place in the community's view of their heritage; and, the place has long been recognised as a tourist attraction.
