10. Statement of Significance

The Kalgoorlie Town Hall and Council Chambers has cultural significance for the following reasons:

the design and detail of the Federation Free Classical exterior, the space and interior details of the Hall and, in particular, the ebullient details of the Council and Lord Mayor's Chambers, establish the building as having considerable aesthetic value, for over eighty years the place has been continuously associated with the major municipal, civic, social and cultural activities and events in Kalgoorlie, the building is evidence of the wealth, civic pride and communal confidence generated by the Kalgoorlie goldfields community at the turn of the century, and the building is both a familiar physical landmark in Hannan Street and a social landmark in the Goldfields community.
