

REGISTER OF HERITAGE PLACES - ASSESSMENT DOCUMENTATION

11. ASSESSMENT OF CULTURAL HERITAGE SIGNIFICANCE

The place has been the subject of a Conservation Plan by Palassis Architects: 'Conservation Plan. Northam Town Hall, Wellington Street, Northam' (for Town of Northam, October 1994).

The place contains a range of features which are individually ranked in significance on p. 89 of the Conservation Plan. (enclosed)

Also enclosed is the assessment of significance and information from the Conservation Plan, regarding the condition of the place.

- assessment pp. 91-96.
- condition pp. 103-104.

The place has a high degree of authenticity and a high degree of integrity. The conservation plan addresses these issues in detail in the conservation policy section.

12. SUPPORTING EVIDENCE

Supporting evidence for the above assessment is found in the following conservation plan. Palassis Architects: 'Conservation Plan. Northam Town Hall, Wellington Street, Northam' (for Town of Northam, October 1994).