10. STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE
North Fremantle Town Hall (fmr), built of stuccoed brickwork, is two-storeyed at the street facade and is heavily embellished with corinthian columns and pilasters, comprising North Fremantle Town Hall (1902) and Library Institute (1906), has cultural heritage significance for the following reasons:
 - the place demonstrates the past prosperity of the Town of North Fremantle, reflecting the confidence of the town's civic leaders at the turn-of-the-century;
 - the place is a fine example of Federation Free Classical architecture, demonstrating a high quality of architectural detailing and craftsmanship;
 - the place is a landmark in North Fremantle;

the place is an important part of the streetscape of Stirling Highway, North Fremantle;

the place contributes to the North Fremantle community's sense of place and the history of the Town of North Fremantle; and, the place, together with the former Municipal Gardens and the War Memorial, defines a former civic precinct.
