10. Statement of Significance

The Boulder Town Hall has cultural significance for the following reasons:

the Town Hall is an impressive example of an administrative and civic building designed in the Gold Boom Free Classicist style; the Goatcher curtain, an important work of scenic art, is an integral part of the Town Hall's elaborately detailed interior;

the Town Hall has historic and social significance associated with the development of Boulder, a West Australian goldfield town; and the building is in reasonable condition, with a high degree of integrity and authenticity.
